

Delivering Excellent Presentations

Course outline

Public speaking is one of peoples biggest fears. From job interviews, speeches, proposals, reporting, training or internal and external meetings. Our course will give you proven techniques to help improve your delivery, reduce nerves and let your natural style flow.

Course duration

One day.

Target audience

Anyone who feels that they lack confidence when confronted with the task of presenting in any capacity.

Course objectives

To show you how to deliver presentations smoothly, with impact and a lasting effect on your audience.

Course schedule

You will work with our trainers to understand proven techniques to enhance your presentation ability including:

- > Improving your self confidence
- > Bad presentations
- > Preparing your presentation
- > Presentation rehearsals
- > The right state for the right presentation
- > Creating instant rapport with your audience

You will get plenty of chances to test and prove your new skills, the course is very relaxed and you will be amazed how much you will learn in one day.

Post course measurement

You will receive dedicated post course support for six weeks to ensure you have harnessed the skills and techniques taught.

Venue information

Please visit the web site to see scheduled dates. We can also train at your premises or a suitable nearby location to your organisation.

Regardless of location, we provide refreshments and a buffet lunch or lunch allowance.

Costs (excluding VAT)

At your premises £250 1st person, £225 per additional person up to four £200 per person, thereafter

At our premises £275 1st person, £250 per additional person up to four £225 per person thereafter

For more information or to make a booking, contact us today:

Telephone

+ 44 (0) 870 766 9035

Email

training@relyable.co.uk

Web

www.relyable.co.uk

Address

145-157 St John St, London EC1V 4PY

